Arcturis Planning Director appointed to Missouri Workforce Investment Board

St. Louis, MO, March 20, 2008..... Carol Gossett, director in the planning department at St. Louis-based architectural design firm Arcturis, has been appointed by Governor Matt Blunt to the Missouri Workforce Investment Board (MoWIB). The board provides policy advice to the Governor and his cabinet on the strategic direction Missouri should take to address critical labor and skills shortages, to enhance the state's economy. MoWIB is administered through the Department of Economic Development's Division of Workforce Development.

“I am delighted to have been chosen for this prestigious position,” said Gossett. “This appointment is an acknowledgement of the organization I represent as a successful contributor to the state's economy.”

At Arcturis, Gossett is responsible for oversight of specific planning projects for the firm, including the Comprehensive Plans for a number of municipalities in the region. Gossett joined Arcturis in 2007 after operating her own firm, CLG Enterprises, for 18 years. She has worked on projects ranging from land acquisition for MetroLink in St. Louis and station master planning for the Tri-County Rail system in Miami, FL, to several components of the Missouri River Greenway Concept Plan and Implementation Strategy and various land assembly and land use planning projects for area municipalities.

A native of St. Louis, Gossett received her bachelor's degree from Washington University. She is a registered broker in the state of Missouri.

The MoWIB is comprised of members representing high-growth industrial companies, community colleges, government agencies, labor unions, legislators, and other stakeholders. Other organizations represented include Kansas City Power and Light, Boeing, Plumbers and Pipefitters Local 562, North Central Missouri Community College, Missouri Department of Economic Development, Missouri Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, Missouri Department of Social Services, Missouri Department of Higher Education, and Missouri Department of Corrections.
